

Secondary School After School Drop-In

TNT

Tea n' Toast

Just Come In

Holiday Opening 4-5pm Fridays

What is TnT?

- Tea and Toast (actually waffles and toppings)
- After-school drop-in at the end of the school week and during the holidays
- A safe place to chill and chat
- For secondary school children living in Chinley
- Friday afternoons 3.30pm – 4:30pm
- In the Parish Room (opposite the shop-parade)
- Free hot or cold drink (water, squash, tea, coffee or hot chocolate) and buttered toast

Who is Running TnT?

- This is a Lighting Up Chinley initiative
- It is being hosted by volunteers from Chinley
- St Mary's Church PCC are providing Safeguarding oversight
- The Parish Council have kindly offered the use of the Parish Room

House Rules

- Only secondary school children will be allowed in
- If you are under 14, you must show that you have your parent's permission and give your parent's contact phone number.
- You are free to come and go as you please.
- Show respect to the leaders and each other.
- Use of mobile-phones is fine, as long as it is not offensive, disrespectful or disturbing others
- Please use the public toilets rather than the one in the Parish Room.
- No smoking, alcohol or drugs on the premises.
- If a TnT helper asks you to modify your behaviour and you do not, you will be asked to leave.

Safeguarding

St Mary's Church PCC have approved the Risk Assessment, Safeguarding arrangements and Volunteer Role descriptions. All TnT leaders and helpers are DBS checked and have received Safeguarding training.

The Safeguarding Policy can be seen here.

You can enquire about TnT via:

- Contact Form
- TnT.Chinley@gmail.com